Apologetics

A Biblical Defense of Catholicism

Dave Armstrong

This exciting book shows that, far from straying from what the Bible teaches, Catholicism is eminently and thoroughly Biblical. Working patiently, systematically, and, above all, charitably, Armstrong begins his examination of each of the disputed issues with an authoritative statement and concise explanation of what the Catholic Church actually teaches. Then, with skill and tenacity, he subjects each teaching to microscopic scrutiny to measure its conformity with Scripture. Here is a book that will challenge sincere Protestants to reconsider their anti-Catholic assumptions; and that will lead Catholics to turn with greater eagerness and confidence to Scripture, where they will find a powerful biblical defense of their Catholic faith. Paperback. 295pp.

Journey's Home

Marcus Grodi

This book contains the conversion stories of men and women who, as a result of their surrender to Jesus Christ, heard a call to follow Him more completely. Many of these men and women came from Protestant faiths that viewed the Catholic Church as the "whore of Babylon" and the pope as the "antichrist." Yet in each case and in uniquely different ways, the Holy Spirit opened their hearts to realize that much of what they had been taught about the Catholic Church was never true. They learned to listen to the voice of truth speaking through history, theology, tradition, Scripture, and personal testimony, and have "come home". Paperback. 442pp. BK473 $31.00

Eucharist

The Blessed Sacrament

Father Faber

"A more intelligent apprehension of the Blessed Sacrament will lead to a more intense love of it." And what insights Father Faber renders! He affirms that the Blessed Sacrament is "the very life of the Church," that it is "the Queen of the Sacraments." Moreover, he claims that "devotion to the Blessed Sacrament is simply divine worship" and that "nothing teaches us humility so much as the Blessed Sacrament." Paperback. 463pp. BK153 $40.00

Eucharistic Adoration

History

Ten Dates Every Catholic Should Know

Diane Moczar

Here are the saints and sinners, popes and kings that God used to shape his Church and change the world. You'll meet Clovis and Charlemagne, Luther and Pope Leo, and others whose sins or sacrifices altered the course of history. Here, too, are the wars and plagues, the ideas and institutions - and, yes, the miracles - that gave birth to our Christian civilization and often threatened to doom it. This is essential reading for any Catholic who wants to understand the history of our Faith. You'll close this book with renewed confidence that no matter how dark and dangerous the times may be, God has never abandoned his people... and never will. Paperback. 175pp.

BK193 $27.00

Christ the King Lord of History

Anne W. Carroll

Here is a fast-paced, enjoyable, highly readable and fascinatingly interesting Catholic world history that is in great demand. It covers largely Western world history since the coming of Christ. BK462 $32.00

The Work of Prayer - A Manual for Those Who Would Pray Well

James O.S. Huntington, OHC

According to Huntington, prayer is neither primarily work nor is it fundamentally our work. On the contrary, prayer is a gift bestowed upon us - not because our piety or sacrifices lead us to deserve it, but simply because we need it. Here we can learn how to give ourselves to God as prayer demands, and that once we do so, prayer will cease to be for us the hardest work in the world and will become as constant and as natural as breathing.

Paperback. 121pp.

ENCYCICAL LETTER ON THE VALUE AND INVULNERABILITY OF HUMAN LIFE

Salvifici Doloris

Salvifici Doloris - On the Christian Meaning of Suffering

John Paul II

There are three central themes explored in Salvifici Doloris: The creative value of suffering, the salvific value of suffering and the Christian vocation in moments of suffering. Written in 1984, it was the first systematic reflection on the Church's teaching regarding the Christian meaning of human suffering. Paperback. 51pp.

John Paul II

APPOSTOLICAL LETTER ON THE CHRISTIAN MEANING OF SUFFERING

Deus Caritas Est

Deus Caritas Est - God Is Love

Benedict XVI

Pope Benedict XVI's first encyclical deals with the most fundamental calling of every Christian: that of love. The first part reclaims the often misused word "love" and looks specifically at the "epitome of love", that between a man and a woman. The second part of the encyclical looks at how the love of God and of Christ on the cross urges us on to love our fellow human beings. Paperback. 48pp.

Teens

Do I Have To Go - 101 Questions about the Mass, the Eucharist, and Your Spiritual Life

Matthew Pinto and Chris Stefanick

Many teens can think of countless things they would rather do than go to Mass on Sunday morning. That is, until they know what they are missing. With wit, clarity and common sense, Matthew Pinto and Chris Stefanick answer the tough questions teens have about the Mass - from the rituals contained in the liturgy, to the doctrines of the Eucharist and the priesthood. When teens understand that the Mass is literally the meeting place between heaven and earth, they will have a newfound sense of awe and a deeper understanding of their role as a Catholic in a post-modern world. Paperback. 143pp.

If You Really Loved Me

Jason Evert

100 Questions on Dating, Relationships and Sexual Purity. Teens will find this book a useful guide to starting a relationship, deciding one's vocation, one day finding a potential spouse, and maintaining purity - without forsaking love. This book will give parents and educators new insights to help teens know the difference between love and lust. They may even look at their own lives differently, because as Evert explains, chastity is not only for singles; married couples must practice this virtue as well. Straight answers to tough questions - a must for every teen! Paperback. 231pp.

Movie and Book Guides

A Guide to Narnia - 100 Questions about the Chronicles of Narnia

Catholic Exchange
 Written by the Editors of Catholic Exchange, A Guide to Narnia is an indispensable resource that will take you deeper into the story and help you understand C.S. Lewis' original purpose for creating this enchanting series. Beneath the surface of this fascinating story lies a beautiful metaphorical tale of Jesus and God's plan of salvation. By learning the meaning behind this classic novel, your movie-going experience will go beyond mere entertainment and become a life lesson on the Christian faith.
 Paperback. 79pp.

The DaVinci Deception - 100 questions About the Facts and Fiction of the Da Vinci Code

Catholic Exchange
The Da Vinci Code became an international hit because of its lurid prose and its sensationalistic - even blasphemous - claims regarding the "true" history of Christianity. In the end, it is nothing more than a thinly-veiled assault on the person of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. This book is an excellent resource for family, friends, parishioners, and anyone you think may be in danger of having their faith in Christ and the Church eroded by the mockery of truth that is The Da Vinci Code.

Benedict and Chico - The Life of Pope Benedict XVI as told by a Cat

Jeanne Perego

Many things are written and said about the Pope every day, but here, my dear children you will find something altogether different: a story told by a cat of all things! And it's not every day that a cat who is friends with the Pope starts telling his story... I have been helping Pope Benedict for many years now; my name is Fr Georg (George in English) just like the Holy Father's older brother. You can be sure that everything you read in this book... is true and interesting. (From the introduction by Fr Georg Gänswein - Personal Secretary to Pope Benedict XVI). This story begins with the birth of Joseph Ratzinger and ends at his election as Holy Father. Hardcover. 40pp.

Children's Novels

A Life of Our Lord for Children

Marigold Hunt

Speaking in language that children understand (and explaining terms they don't), Marigold Hunt begins with Adam, moves quickly through the Old Testament, and then dwells at length on Jesus Himself. Children meet Jesus in His goodness, His suffering, and His majesty. Paperback. 188pp.

BK498 $28.00

The First Christians

Marigold Hunt

The Acts of the Apostles for Children. Focusing on the deeds of Sts. Peter, Paul, and Barnabas, children are shown that the Church, which today seems so ancient and established, was born in turbulent times, when merely confessing that you believed in Jesus could get you killed. This is thrilling - and true - saga of the lives and works of the first apostles. Paperback. 165pp.

BK456 $28.00

Catholic Tales for Boys and Girls

Caryll Houselander

Here are tales of pirates and princesses, castles and kings - tales of Catholic boys and girls to remind you that miracles really happen and love is stronger than death. Rich men, poor men, priests, nuns, and farmers: all are here with good Catholic children who fill these pages with prayers and fun, bringing delight to Jesus and happiness to all who meet them. Paperback. 152pp.

BK370 $24.00

The Man Who Never Died

Rev. Gerald T. Brennan

The Life and Adventures of St. Peter, the First Pope. These pages recount the adventures of Peter, the first pope, whose troubles began just days after Jesus returned to Heaven. Yes, as you'll read in these exciting pages, Peter, the first pope, died (as do all his successors). Each will be replaced by another pope, who will also be known as "Peter". In this way Peter became the man who never died. Paperback. 85pp.

BK348 $21.00

A Book of Angels

Marigold Hunt

Here are tales of the angels who were there when history itself began. Angels past, angels present, and angels future: This book shows that angels are everywhere. They're God's loving servants, and they're our friends - even today! Paperback. 165pp.

BK349 $25.00

St Patrick's Summer

Marigold Hunt

A Children's Adventure Catechism. Between catechism lessons taught by saints, the children in the story travel back in time to witness persecuted Catholics risking their lives to attend furtive Masses in Roman days, in Reformation England, and in the Soviet Union just a few decades ago. Through words and witnessing, deeds and doctrine, the truths of our Catholic Faith are learned. Paperback. 277pp.

The Catholic Verses

Dave Armstrong

Martin Luther ignited the Protestant Reformation by tacking ninety-five anti-Catholic theses to a church door in Germany. Now Dave Armstrong counters with ninety-five pro-Catholic passages from an authority for greater than Luther: the Bible itself.

Armstrong shows that a fair-minded reading of each of these passages (and of the whole Bible) supports the Catholic position on the key issues that divide Protestants from Catholics. Here is biblical evidence that Catholicism is right about the nature of baptism, the Communion of Saints, the Eucharist, and the Church; about relics, purgatory, and Mary; and about the authority of the Pope, the Bible, and Tradition. The Church is right about faith and good works, the immorality of divorce and contraception, and much more.

The Catholic Verses is essential reading for all persons seeking to understand God's word in the Bible and to discover the Church that continues to preach His word faithfully today.

Paperback. 233pp.
BK507 $37.00

A Catholic Dictionary

Donald Attwater (General Editor)

Here is one of the most valuable Catholic books ever published. It is a goldmine of information, with over 5,000 entries explained briefly, clearly and authoritatively, all in an easy-to-use format. This famous book focuses on the essentials of each topic, giving facts, definitions and the Church's traditional teaching, making clear distinctions, without confusing the issues with speculation, trendy opinions, compromise or dissent.

A Catholic Dictionary puts the reader in touch with the true traditions of the Catholic Church and is easily worth its price many times over! A superb reference, this book amazingly supplies answers on a host of topics and covers a wide range of potential users, from parents and students in the home, to parish priests, to professors in the academic fields. It is a work that should be readily available in every Catholic home, school and parish in the English speaking world.
